An Indian Skinmish .- Sunday night there was trouble in the Indian campoody just below town. There was not only rumors of war, but war; actual, rude, rough, direful war, where the messengers were leaden builets, and negotiations were conducted through the medium of Arkansas toothpicks. Like a wolf on the fold did the Indians from Meadow Valley come down on those from the Pieche raucheria. Then rose cries of dismay from the squaws and of rage from the furious braves. The slogan of the Meadow Valley dusky warriors was beauty and booty, for they went after the squaws and horses and the personal the squaws and horses and the personal property generally of their adversaries. But they met a stout resistance, and the Pioche Lo's fought valiently for their household gods and partners of their affections. The result was that the invaders were beaten off—carrying their dead and wounded if they had any, which report says they did. The casualties of the Pioche legion of tawny warriors was one slashed in the face in a manner not calculated to promote his not calculated to promote his good looks, according to civilized ideas, and another shot through the breast; which, like Mercuteo's wound, not as deep as a well or as wide as a church door, will probably qualify Mr. Indian as a candidate for admission to the bappy hunting grounds. Vesterday all was peace and feasting, and congratulation was the order of the day.

Wells, Fango & Co .- Among the new advertisements will be found the business notice of the above well-known and reliable company. It has been doing business on this coast for over twenty years as a first-class express and banking company, and by constant and careful attention to its business in all its intrieste ramifications and promptness in honoring every just demand, has won the confidence and respect of the citi-zens of the Pacific coast in a very remarkable degree. In every mining town of the West it has become a public necessity and its name has become a synoor promptness and regularity in and leave a reserve for accidents, etc.

Mill Superintendent Robert Robinson test. In Pioche, the office under the comes up every once in a while with which ul and able management of its efficient and courteous chief, J. M. Seibert, does its part fully in sustaining the company's well carned and excellent reputation. In the business of buying part selling stocks, a matter which the and selling stocks, a matter which the critzens of Pioche are largely interested, a strictly commission business will be transacted and the patrons of the house may rely upon receiving every advantage that the state of the market at the time of the transaction affords. The com-pany also makes advances on stock. The banking and express departments will be SUNDAY did not pass without a scrimmage or two besides the Indian raid in the evening. During the day there was an animated discussion or two with fists. One occurred during the day, on Main street, in which two men were engaged -names unknown-who talked unkindly and produced shooting irons, but were persuaded not to put them into use. A realizing sense of the folly of doing so were persuaded not to put them into use. A realizing sense of the folly of doing so being probably hastened by the sight of an officer advancing at the double-quick. Late in the evening the beligerent spirit was still abroad and caused two or three drunken rows, which was provocative of contusions on the manly brows, swelled nasal protuberances and clouded on the control of the same of the same of the control of the same of the same of the control of the same o optics of and on some of the combatants, spaces of and on some of the combatants, as also an interview with the gentleman who so firmly, but urbanely, presides in the Justice's Court. The last row was in the dwelling of an anonyma and was promptly quelled by the officers who incontinently marched off the offenders to await the architecture are and followed. await the retributive sword of justice, No use talking, those who dance must pay the fiddler.

Accident, - We regret to announce that on Saturday a severe accident occurred in the Raymond & Ely shaft, by which J. McLain was badly burt. It appears that he was in the lower compartment of the cage (which is a double one) and in attempting to enter one of the levels was caught between the cage and the floor of the station. Dr. Deal is attending the unfortunate man, and is doing all that is possible to insure retong an that is possible to insure re-covery. Yesterday we learned that he was improving, but are also informed that at present it is impossible to tell what may be the final result of the injuries. We hope, however, that the patient will speedily and entirely recover.

JUSTICE'S COURT.-Yesterday fighting whisky ruffled the dead calm, which for some days has prevailed in the Rhadamanthene realms where Justice Van Hagen strikes terror into evil doers. The proceedings were that of James Stevens for kicking up a shindy, was fined $15 and got a lecture. John Mitchell was and got a lecture. John Mitchell was expostulated with and required to leave Silveosis in testimony of his appreciation of good advice, and James Figueras, who had been kicking up the dust considerably, even as a pawing bull of Bashaw, contributed $25, in order to show that he was willing to that for exponence layer. ras willing to pay for expensive luxu-ries. In civil business Snodgrass vs. Hall, was heard and taken under advise-

STILL FOR WALL.—The bellicose fit has not departed. Yesterday a couple of hombres desired to settle their differences by the ordeal of battle, but we regret to say the ordeal of battle, but we regret to say that their ardor was sadly dimmed by the sudden appearance of an officer or two. Again last evening the air was full of gentle invitations to partake of the pleasures of a vigorous kicking, but alas, the requisites were borns away on the thin air without touching a responsive chord in the breasts of the crowd.

Deconation Day.-There will be a meeting of citizens this evening at Justice Van Hagen's, to take measures for the proper observance of Decoration Day. It is not intended to make any distinc-tion between sections, but to honor alike the graves of the departed brave, both of the North and South. It is hoped there will be a full attendance of the citizens of Pioche. The time of meeting is 8 o'clock, sharp.

Ice CREAN. - Yesterday a bountiful supply of this refreshing delicacy of exite flavor, was supplied this office by Wm. Jones, who, mindful of our citizens' convenience, supplies this luxury at their own doors. Those who wish to enjoy a nice dish of cream should not fail to patronize him.

UNDERSTANDINGS .- P. O'Toole gives otice in an advertisement under the head of new to-day, that he is again ready to supply the citizens of Pioche with the very best style of coverings for the pedal extremities, at a reduction of forty per cent. from old rates. Mr. O'Toole has a first class reputation as an excellent bootmaker, and he intends to sustain it fully. Call and see him.

DISTRICT COURT met at the usual hour vesterday morning. M. Simonsen va. Cook & Bissikumer; judgment for plaintiff was entered by consent. Roeder vs. Guertin; judgment for plaintiff. State of Nevada vs. Sunbeam Silver Mining Company; set for Friday, 29th inst. All trial jurors are excused until the 13th of July. The Court adjourned until Friday, 29th inst.

A DRAKE.-Not Sir Francis, but a feathered biped, has strayed or been carried off from his accustomed haunts, and his disconsolate consorts mourn exceed-ingly for their missing lord. The bird has been a household pet, and if whoever finds it will return it to the owner, P. Holland, will confer a favor and be suit-ably rewarded.

WILMANS' House,-By our advertising columns it will be seen that Miss D. Donaghue has taken the above house and for the future will conduct it as a superior boarding house, at the lowest possible rates.

ARRIVED .- Judge G. G. Berry arrived in Pioche yesterday looking exceedingly well, after an absence of several month at the Bay and various portions of this BULLION SHIPMENT. - The bullion shipped by Wells, Fargo & Co. yester-day amounted to $16,172.24.

EBERHARDT & AURORA. - Miners from the Hill represent the mines of this com-pany to be looking splendidly, and a noticeable improvement is manifested as depth is attained. The famous Peerless Chamber, since its discovery a year ago, has yielded many hundreds of tons of magnificent pay ore, and the supply seems even now to be inexhaustible. In the Ward Beecher (the English Ward Beecher) work is being vigorously prose-cuted, resulting in finding large bodies of pay ore. The mines are producing sufficient quantities of rock to keep the mill at Eberhardt in motion constantly, port of our county .-- [ W. P. News, 23d.

THERE has been within the last month a ledge discovered by Mr. Felix O'Neil, near the Peavine Hotel, which bids fair to prove one of the most valuable in the to prove one of the most valuable in the State. It is an almost solid mass of cop-per ore, of the grey sulphuret variety, four feet wide, and assaying $1,500 in silver and over $700 per ton in gold. It is called the Bellehymer Ledge. The is called the Beliehymer Ledge. The town presents a lively appearance, the roads having become good and prospectors are flocking in continually. A daily stage is running from Reno and comes loaded with passengers, and every thing looks now as if Peavine will this Summer be one of the liveliest of the lively camps of Nevada.—[Virg. Do I CALL UPON THO-E STOCKHOLDERS watching the Page & Panaca mine who are timidily watching the Bear movement to come forward and pay their quota of assessment. That the mine is all and more than its ardent friends mine is all and more than its ardent friends claim for it requires no assurance on my park, and the present Directors are anxious to have the assessments still due speedily settled, so as to convince those who are minical to the interests of our mine that we not only mean business, but that we compare in integrity of purpose more favorably than the managers of any of the mines on our slope.

Thanking those who have so readily responded to my call, I feel condent that those who are still lagging behind will not require another reminder to have them come up with their assessments, so as to save all extra expense and assure themselves of their legitimate investment.
